The magic is in the handle — it illuminates when rain or snow is in the forecast .

Never forget your umbrella again. The Ambient Umbrella lets you know when rain or snow is in the forecast by illuminating its handle. Light patterns intuitively indicate rain, drizzle, snow, or thunderstorms. Automatically receives local weather data from AccuWeather.com — no setup, no sensors, no wet pants... This intelligent umbrella has you covered.

- Knows when precipitation is expected - rain or snow
- Lights indicate rain, drizzle, snow, and thunderstorms
- Receives data from Accuweather.com
- "Gust-buster" patented canopy design
